A Card.

A MISTAKE CORRECTED.

It has been said that I signed the Murphy pledge under the influence of an essay read by a certain young lady of this community at the school-house, near this place, on the evening of September 23. This is a mistake, as I had signed the pledge two weeks before the essay was read. In signing the pledge I was actuated by the purest and highest motives—motives higher and purer than those who hatched up this untruth can conceive—and not by the threat of the young lady to refuse all but Murphys the privilege of her company. W. H. L. Antioch, Oct. 10, 1879.

Franklin County Sunday-School Convention of the Christian Church.

Delegates from the Sunday-schools at Bridgeport, Antioch, Mt. Zion, Pleasant Hill, Grassy Springs, Hardinsville, and Frankfort met in the Christian Church at Frankfort on Saturday, October 4th, and organized a County Convention for Sunday-school work in Franklin county by the election of the following officers:

President, George Darsie, pastor Christian Church, city; Vice President, Col. Alexander Julian, Bridgeport; Secretary and Treasurer, Percy Smith, Frankfort.

Executive Committee: C. C. Furr, Frankfort; J. R. Shaw, Grassy Springs; Alexander Jackson, Pleasant Hill; G. F. McQueen, Antioch; R. Hancock, Hardinsville; J. H. Shinn, Bridgeport.

On motion, it was ordered that the Convention meet every three months during the first year of its organization.

It was further ordered that the Secretary should furnish the Roundabout, Yeoman, and Apostolic Times with the proceedings of the Convention for publication. Adjourned sine die.

JOSIAH H. SHINN, Secretary.

No failures are recorded of the famous outward specific, HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE. It is invariably successful in healing sores, curing eruptions, removing proud flesh, and overcoming suppuration and inflammation. These sanative results it accomplishes without any scar or discoloration of the skin. As a local application for chronic rheumatism, sore throat, and tightness of the chest, it is also highly spoken of. Sold by Hughes & Chiles, Druggists.
